Mergers Are a Challenge to Rural Television

To file your personal comment with the FCC, please review and follow Steps 1-5 below:

1. You may file a comment on either or both mergers. Just click the Proceeding Number once on the FCC web site, and the correct blank form for that merger will appear:

Comcast/Time Warner - Proceeding #14-57

AT&T/DIRECTV - Proceeding #14-90

2. Fill out your name, address, and comments on that form. Most people are writing about two paragraphs for their comments.
3. Click CONTINUE, and your information will be on screen for your final approval.
4. Click CONFIRM in the top, middle of that page and your form will be filed with the FCC.

Please support existing RFD-TV, RURAL TV, and its 146 independent rural program producers who are dedicated to serving the needs and interests of urban and rural America. These programs exist to reconnect urban families with country families and share life events in a manner no other media may.

The loss of these programs will change America detrimentally just as the addition of Muslim programming and its intentional strategy to harm the American way of life exists. The heart of Muslim theology dictates that all members of a society succumb to its belief or become subservient. Women's rights do not exist. Please examine the manner in which ISIS now changes Iraq by killing Christian believers to rape and murder forcing Muslim beliefs on all members of that nation.

I am a retired veteran well trained in global issues and the societies and beliefs connected with Muslim ideology. I also hold several earned university degrees in the issues about which we speak.

Protect Rural TV

Muslim beliefs shared, and designed to program its viewers, by the Al Jazeera networks, will undermine nations with the radical long-term intention proposed in the overthrow of non-Muslim governments. These intentions may be examined historically identified in those nations of Europe and the Middle East now facing radical changes due to Muslim societies forcing the addition of lifestyles and mosques to communities to change them - as opposed to immigrants changing to meet the conditions existing in their newly adopted communities. Again, the strategy exists to overthrow nations inwardly and by force when the right conditions exist (i.e., ISIS events in Iraq 2014).

Please protect to existing American way of life and do not promote the Al Jazeera network's propaganda. Thank you.
